RE: Yampa Valley Land Trust and Colorado Cattlemen's Agricultural Land Trust
Merger

Dear Mr. Johnson

The Routt County Board of County Commissioners ("Board") has reviewed your letter dated December 12, 2019, which sets forth the circumstances regarding the merger of Yampa Valley Land Trust, a Colorado not for profit corporation, with Colorado Cattlemen's Agricultural Land Trust (CCALT). The Board understands that Yampa Valley Land Trust, LLC (LLC), and therefore CCALT as its sole member, stands in the shoes of the former Yampa Valley Land Trust. The Board will look to the LLC and CCALT with respect to all obligations under Agreements Concerning Conservation Easements with Routt County. While the County believes your listing of these Agreements is accurate, an Agreement not being listed in the December 12 letter shall not be construed as a release or waiver.

Thank you for your work with Routt County in protecting and preserving ranch and agricultural lands and natural areas. We look forward to our continued partnership.

Sincerely,

Timothy V. Corrigan
Chair
Routt County Board of County Commissioners
