AGENDA COMMUNICATION FORM

V. BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Emergency Medical Services Council (EMS) facilitates planning, and to the extent possible, coordination of emergency medical services in and between the counties. The Council assists the Commissioners in meeting the requirements of inspection and licensing of ambulances and annual submission of the County EMS plan to the Northwest Regional and Emergency Area Council, (NWRETAC). The Council facilitates coordination and communication between EMS agencies and other providers of emergency services in the following manner: a bi-monthly meeting which includes EMS providers and the Medical Director, provision of a countywide maintenance contract for defibrillators, facilitation of mass casualty planning and drills, and providing for additional continuing education.
