A. PUBLIC HEALTH STUDENT PROJECT

Routt County Public Health was approached to assist with a project through the Mountains and Plains Education and Research Center (MAP-ERC) a CDC/ NIOSH funded program. 4 PhD level students would like to administer a survey to Routt County Employees to assess wellbeing and mental stress. The attached scope of work was developed in collaboration with Routt County Public Health and Human Resources. The project will take place hopefully in April with results and recommendations provided in May. This course focuses on total worker health and students work with different industries and companies to provide their services free of charge to fulfill their credit requirement. This will be an overview and awareness about the project.
